

I love my freedom to listen to Satellite radio. I pay for the service and like the variety. I am female 38 years of age, so I am a responsible Adult who should be able to have this service without the National Association of Broadcasters to dictate what I am permitted to hear.